This Responsible Underage Policy constitutes part of our Terms and Conditions.

This policy applies to all Users of our website without exception. By using our website you confirm that you are fully aware of and comply with this policy. If we find that you have violated this Policy in any way, your account will be blocked without possibility of recovery.

1. Use and registration on our website is prohibited to anyone under the age of 18 or any other age that is set in your jurisdiction as the minimum age to use our Services. It is your responsibility to know and comply with the legal requirements of your jurisdiction.
2. When registering, we require Users to provide their age. Further verification is done by providing a government-issued document that proves identity. The document must clearly show the User's age. If there is any doubt about the User's age or whether the document belongs to the User, we reserve the right to refuse verification.
3. You must control who has access to the verified account. It is your responsibility to ensure that only you have access to your account. Do not store your account access details anywhere where they can be accessed by anyone else.
4. Do not use software that stores data to store the data used to log into your account. If we discover that anyone other than a verified user has accessed your account we reserve the right to block it.
5. If you have minors in your household you undertake to provide appropriate parental control measures to prevent minors from accessing your account.
6. If you have reasonable suspicion that any minor has accessed our Services in any way, you agree to notify us immediately at the following email address helpdesk@olimp.com

7. We strongly advise parents to protect their children from accessing online gaming websites by using special software:

Net Nanny
